New Year Messages To Our Dear Students

A message from the Director Mbale Campus, Mr. Ayub Kutosi

Specifically to our students, there are going to be days when you feel confused about your purpose or direction.. I am certain that there are going to be some times when you feel so low. The important lesson here is that you should never allow anyone or anything to convince you otherwise. Regardless of the circumstances that happen in your life, your fulfillment will come from doing what fuels your soul, and sometimes that will not be in a full-time position, but a hobby or something that you create or pick up on the side. If you do not feel very purposeful or passionate about anything right now, it's okay. It takes time to find something that truly ignites your soul and fills up your tank. Be patient as you continue to walk through life and be open to each and every experience, you will find what fuels you, and it will be beautiful. Diligently try to work hard to get all the right internships, careers and experiences to get to where you want to go. Do not fall into the trap of recklessness (drug, Alcohol and substance abuse, sexual immorality etc.), . Stay humble because pride comes with arrogance and self-centeredness.

A message from Director MUBS Mbarara Regional Campus Dr. Byarugaba Pontius,

Dear students you need to work hard to achieve your goals; your parents invest in you to acquire education that gives you confidence, assertiveness and makes you aggressive. The three attributes strategically enable you to compete favorably in the business world. I wish you a year of excellent academic performance.

Hard Work And Hustling Pays

There once was a young person who wanted to achieve great things in life, but he was struggling to get ahead and felt like he was stuck in a rut. He felt discouraged and wondered if he would ever be able to achieve his goals. Then, he met an older man in a business conference who had achieved great things in life. This old man told the young person that the key to success was hard work and hustle. The old man explained that even when things get tough, it is important to keep moving forward and never give up at any point. This old man listed down the following as some of the great things you can achieve after working hard and hustling as a person with a strong vision and mission in life, He said ‘there are many great things that can be achieved. Some examples include: achieving financial stability and security, building a successful career or business, improving ones skills and knowledge, gaining self-confidence and a sense of accomplishment, making a positive impact in the world, living a fulfilling and purposeful life and still these are just some of the great things that can be achieved after putting in the time and effort to work hard and hustle. The possibilities are truly endless! He completed by saying that the choice you make as an individual can exploit a lot of chances you have to change this world’
